8. [redacted] In the absence of Representative Albert Watson (R., S.Car.) from the city, I met with Mr. William A. Cook, Administrative Assistant to the Congressman. Although Representative Watson will be returning to the city this evening, Mr. Cook indicated that the Congressman intended to return to his district tomorrow to attend the funeral of General Westmoreland's mother. We reviewed the Congressman's letter to Mr. Helms relating to an item in the Washington Observer newsletter concerning a Soviet Spy ring in CIA. Mr. Cook readily appreciated the Agency's official position of no comment and expressed appreciation on behalf of Mr. Watson for the Director's off-the-record advice that the report is without foundation. He also expressed appreciation for our courtesy in coming by to discuss the matter with him and indicated that in all probability this meeting would more than satisfy Mr. Watson's needs. As a result of the discussion I told Mr. Cook that I would drop by tomorrow and provide a copy of the unclassified pamphlet entitled "The Central Intelligence Agency."
